Due to illness, Pierre Hétu will not be attending this performance

Dwight Bennet
will be conducting the pieces

Concerto for Piano and Orchestra in E flat major, no. 1
Suite from Háry János

Dwight Bennett is currently Conductor with the Canadian Opera Company, and Artistic Director with the Mississauga City Center Opera.

A graduate of the University of Toronto, Mr. Bennett won first prize in the Heinz Unger Conducting Competition, and went on to study in Europe with Franco Ferrara, Kiril Kondrashin, and Bernard Haitink.

Mr. Bennett was for many years Music Director and Principal Conductor of the Windsor Symphony and the Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestra. In addition, he has guest conducted orchestras and opera companies across Canada and the United States, and has been heard in recordings and broadcasts by the CBC on numerous occasions.

Dwight Bennett's future engagements include La Boheme, Così fan Tutte and The Barber of Seville with the MCCO, the Toronto Operetta Theatre, and Don Pasquale with the Canadian Opera Company.

The Faculty of Music and the University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra would like to thank the Canadian Opera Company and Dwight Bennett for the privilege of his conducting expertise.

Pierre Hétu, born in Montreal, graduated in music at the Conservatoire de Montréal and at the Music Department of the Université de Montréal. He studied conducting in Paris and spent three consecutive summers at the Chigiana Music Academy in Siena, Italy. In 1961 he won the first prize of the International Competition for Conductors in Besançon, France, after which he spent one year in Vienna at the Music Academy. He also studied with Charles Munch in Tanglewood and in Düsseldorf with Jean Martinon. In 1963 he was appointed Assistant Conductor of the Montreal Symphony. In 1968 he became the Music Director of the Kalamazoo Symphony Orchestra, and two years later, accepted the post of Associate Conductor of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. From 1973 to 1980 he was the Music Director of the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra. Since 1980, Mr. Hétu has continued his guest conducting with major Canadian orchestras across North America and has taught conducting both privately and in master classes. Pierre Hétu is now Associate Professor and the resident conductor of the University of Toronto Symphony Orchestra.

Judith Yan studied piano in the scholarship program at the Royal Conservatory of Music. At the age of eleven, she performed in the Master Concert with the late Eugene List. She was also a finalist at the Canadian Music Competition in 1982 held in Edmonton. Judith graduated from the University of Toronto with a bachelor of music degree in composition. She has written many works for ballet and modern dance. Judith is currently the assistant to and studying with Maestro Pierre Hétu in the Special Conducting Program at the University of Toronto.

Michael Hall received his bachelor of music degree in theory from the University of Toronto in 1992 and is presently in his second year of the Advanced Program in Conducting under Professor Hétu. Since 1991, he has been working with the Oakville Symphony Orchestra as assistant conductor and in 1992, was appointed music director and principal conductor of the Dundas Valley Orchestra. More recently, he attended the summer program at the conductors institute at the University of South Carolina. Michael plans to study abroad this fall.

Kathy Tremills began piano lessons at age four with her mother and later continued with Shirley Hawkins of Owen Sound and Gwen Beamish of Sarnia. She has participated in summer masterclass programs at the Orford Centre d'Arts, the Banff Center of Fine Arts and the Adamant Music School. In 1992, Kathy was a national finalist in the Canada Music Competition and in 1993, she was a finalist in the CIBC National Music Festival. Kathy was a soloist with the Georgian Bay Symphony Orchestra in 1991 and 1993 and will again be appearing with them in December 1994. She has enjoyed teaching, accompanying and working in chamber groups for a number of years and has sung in many award-winning choirs since age seven. Kathy is presently studying with Marietta Orlov in her final year of the Bachelor's program.
